COLONEL JOHN L. SEATON, aged about sixty-five years, dropped dead at Cynthiana a day or so ago.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Menough, at Washington, D. C., on Monday, December 20th, a daughter.

THE Boyd Manufacturing Company of Levanna recently shipped 380,000 feet of lumber to Cincinnati in one barge.

THE Maysville Assembly will give a private hop at the St. Charles Hotel next Friday evening. All members are invited.

JOK WAGES has been held to bail in the sum of $2,000 to answer the charge of murdering John Thomas in Madison County.

MORGAN & EASTON's hat store, at Lexington, was badly damaged by fire Sunday night. Loss on store and contents amounted to $9,500.

PERSONS desiring to attend the concert in the M. E. Church at Aberdeen, Thursday night, December 30, can procure tickets by applying to Mr. George W. Tudor.

FLORA EASTER, colored, charged with stealing $22.50 from Miss Mary McCoy, of the Tuckahoe neighborhood, was lodged in jail Friday to await the action of the grand jury.

A NEGRO named J. W. Trumbo, charged with an attempted outrage upon a white girl at Cynthiana, would have been lynched Christmas night had it not been for the courage of the jailer.

MR. JOHN W. BURTON, of Montgomery County, and Miss Lillie E. Rhoades were married at Washington to-day. The bride is the daughter of one of Mason County's well-to-do farmers.

A LITTLE bird now comes sailing gently in and whispers in our ear that the mellow wedding bells will soon be set ringing again. This time it will be heard in the west end of the county.

THE Uniform Rank K. of P., assisted by Professor Knoll and the First Regiment Band, will give a dance December 30, 31 and January 1st. Admission, 10 cents; ladies free. At Neptune Hall.

Tone up the system by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It will make you feel like a new person. Thousands have found health and relief from suffering by the use of this great blood purifier when all other means failed.

THE Emerald Club gave one of their popular entertainments at Neptune Hall last night. A large crowd was in attendance. The Maysville orchestra furnished delightful music and an unusually pleasant evening was spent by the audience.

Forty years' experience in every clime on earth has proved Ayer's Cherry Pectoral to be the most reliable remedy for colds, coughs, and all lung diseases. Neglected colds often become incurable ailments. Deal with them in time, and prevent their becoming deep-seated in the system.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Mason County Building and Saving Association Saturday evening, the following were re-elected as officers and directors for the ensuing year:

President—J. James Wood.
Vice President—J. R. Rudy.
Secretary—M. C. Russell.
Treasurer—R. K. Hoeflich.
Directors—D. Hechinger, John N. Thomas, J. F. Barbour, George T. Wood, Dr. James Shackelford, A. M. J. Cochran, E. W. Mitchell.

THE literary and musical entertainment in the Baptist Church at Mayslick will be given Thursday night, December 30th. Professor Frost will be assisted by some of his advanced pupils of that place and vicinity. In addition to this some of the best talent of Mason County, we are informed, will take part. The people of Mayslick will be given an opportunity of spending a pleasant evening, and, at the same time, aiding in a worthy cause.

"The ladies—bless 'em—it beats all! When they are young and squallers, Their hearts are set upon the doll—When grown, upon the dollars."

MONDAY evening was a memorable occasion with the colored Masonic fraternity of this city. They held their installation services at Amazon Hall, and gave a grand entertainment. Haucke's Reed and Brass Band accompanied them to the hall and furnished "soul-stirring" music. Professor Venie's String Band was afterwards on hand to enliven the occasion. Perhaps the principal feature of the occasion was the address of Rev. Dr. Franklin, the orator of the evening. It was pronounced the ablest discourse ever delivered to a colored order in Maysville.

The Sabbath school entertainment on Christmas Eve at the Methodist Church, on Third street, was an enjoyable affair. The choir, assisted by Mr. Dye with the cornet, rendered exquisite music. Recitations of the ten commandments, and of the "Angel and the Shepherds," from Saint Luke, by the pupils of the infant class elicited favorable comment. Also a charming recitation of a Christmas poem, by a lovely little miss from another class. Additional variety was given to the exercises by a young gentleman of the school, a pupil of Professor Kappes, most perfectly reciting the Lord's Prayer in German. A unique feature of the occasion was writing the Lord's Prayer on the blackboard in French by the Sunday School Secretary, Mr. Sauvary, and his reading it with the pure accent, only possible to one who has been taught it as his native tongue.

A bountiful treat of candies and foreign fruits was distributed to all.

Our citizens enjoyed last evening for the second time one of Mrs. Oton's delightful entertainments. The programme was a departure from Mrs. Oton's former role, and while treating her large audience to a feast of comedy and tragedy, her selections were entirely new, and so far as the artist is concerned, untried. "The Ride of Jennie McNeal," was rendered in such a manner as to captivate her hearers, and the continued applause gave token of the high esteem in which Mrs. Oton is held by a Maysville audience. "Juanita," in costume, was a fine portrayal of the alternate wild and tender emotions of an Indian maiden, choosing between her lovers, and with Indian coquetry, putting the rival suitors to the test of daring to obtain her smiles. This role is new to Mrs. Oton, and the first time attempted, but it must be said to her praise, the difficult subject was most admirably handled. Mrs. Oton presented to her audience her young protegee, Miss Bishop, of Paris, Ky., who made her first bow before an audience, and it is not extravagant language to say that the young lady has a grand future before her, when, after proper teaching, the great merit of her voice is fairly developed, Paris will open her eyes to behold a radiant jewel which has been buried in obscurity and long neglected. Miss Benjamin, of Cincinnati, Ohio, as a flutist, has few equals, and her hearers sat entranced as she filled the air with the liquid notes from that sweet instrument. Miss Maud Stout, as "Little Gipsy Jane," acquitted herself admirably. Space will not admit of a lengthy sketch of Mrs. Oton's entertainment. Taken altogether, it was such as only she can give.

Personal.

Mrs. William Pepper is visiting friends and relatives in Carlisle.

Miss Isabelle Schmitt, of Lexington, is visiting Mrs. H. P. Lewis.

Dr. R. H. Pepper left last night for his home at Huntington, W. Va.

Mr. Geo. B. Thomas has returned from a visit of several months in Canada.

Miss Lizzie Hinton, of Flemingsburg, is visiting the family of Mr. John Farley.

Mr. George Wormald, of Bellevue, Ky., is visiting his son, Mr. Jacob Wormald.

Dr. Wilson and wife, of Covington, are visiting the family of Mr. Charles B. Hill.

Mr. Frank Mannen, of St. Paul, Minn., arrived yesterday on a visit to friends and relatives.

Mrs. Catharine Chisholm, of Cynthiana, is a guest of the family of Mr. Thoms J. Farley.

Mr. Joe Hart, of the Red Corner Clothing House, left yesterday for Chicago, to spend a few days.

Mr. Edward M. Duncan, of the Lexington Press, is a guest of the family of Rev. Russell Cecil.

Mrs. Jennie Tudor, Miss Alice Tudor, Mrs. Snyder and son and Mrs. Steigwald and son, of Cincinnati, are visiting the family of Mr. James Hise.

Mr. S. A. Wood, of Cincinnati, was in town last Monday evening, en route home from a visit to his parents at Concord. His studio is still at No. 163 West Fifth street, where he is ever ready to welcome his Maysville friends. He is enjoying a good business, and thinks portrait painting gets away with clerking in a clothing house every time.

He is Now Learning How to Refine Sugar.

In a pleasant chat with Mr. Adolph L. Beltran, son of R. Beltran, Esq., commission merchant on Decatur street, the fortunate holder of one-fifth of ticket No. 94,552, winning $75,000 in November drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, stated that he is a native of New Orleans, and is in the laboratory of the Planters' Sugar Refinery, learning the business, and that the sudden accumulation of wealth will in no way affect his resolution to master his adopted profession. —New Orleans (La.) Picayune, Nov. 13th.

Another Rich Plum.

The Baptists did not forget their pastor this Christmas, as the state of his pantry abundantly proves. He was made glad by the reception of several barrels of flour, hams, groceries, cakes, &c., from the kind friends in his congregation. This church evidently know how to treat a pastor. Only a few weeks ago they sent Hechinger word to arrest Mr. Garrett and to take his measure. The result of this violent proceeding was one of Hechinger's finest $40 overcoats, which the pastor has been wearing since.

Whatever may be the faults of our Maysville people, it can never be charged upon them that they do not treat their preachers right.

Lodge Elections.

DeKalb Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F., last night elected the following officers for the ensuing term:

Noble Grand—F. H. Traxel.
Vice Grand—W. C. Miller.
Secretary—John W. Thompson.
Treasurer—Robert A. Cochran.
Host—John W. Thompson.
Finance Committee (appointed)—C. L. Salter, M. F. Marsh and John C. Adamson.

The contest for Vice Grand, we understand, was a rather lively one. There were seventeen candidates in the start. It took fourteen ballots to settle the matter.

At the regular meeting of Pisgah Encampment, I. O. O. F., last Monday evening, the election of officers for ensuing term resulted as follows:

Chief Patriarch—R. A. Carr.
Senior Warden—William Reeves.
Junior Warden—F. H. Traxel.
High Priest—J. H. Stallcup.
Scribe—Byron Rudy.
Treasurer—James Smith.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSICK.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Laytham near here was the scene of a delightful Christmas dinner party, participated in by about twenty young couples who gathered there through the courtesy of Miss Annie and Bettie, their generous, charming daughters. The dining apartment resembled some banquet scene of old, with its long table laden with choicest edibles, and graced on either side by some of the fairest of fair ladies. Music, card-playing, dancing and croquet were the features of the evening. Not until the coming of the Sabbath morn did the joyous assembly disperse, and even then most reluctantly were the farewells given.
